

Forgotten

*Digesting deceit
I'm broken faulted
And that's just better for me
This situation intrigues
I am assaulted
I don't know how I succeed
where am I now?
(Somehow) a plaything at your discretion now
Pulling away this veil I see
Realize this path's not meant for me
Stripped away are all my needs
And now all that's left is forgotten*

*I want to be free
You won't allow it
It makes me drop to my knees
What must I do to appease?
My effort's scalded
I guess I'll have to concede
where am I now?
(Somehow) a plaything at your discretion now
Pulling away this veil I see
Realize this path's not meant for me
Stripped away are all my needs

*One day I must decide if I'm worth it Gave it life and I realized it took it
Don't feel bad for me
Don't feel sad for me*

Don't feel bad for me

Don't feel sad for me

where am I now?

(Somehow) a plaything at your discretion now

Pulling away this veil I see

Realize this path's not meant for me

Stripped away are all my needs

And now all that's left is forgotten
