

Start The Healing

*Do you really wanna come to me?
It's hard to see from the eyes of a stranger
Are you ready for your fear to leave
So you can breathe and not live with the danger?*

But there's always something fighting its way back in

But there's always something pushing me to give in

*Do you really wanna make-believe?
And try to achieve a little break from the anger?*

*I should've been good, I should've been down
I couldn't let go, what could I do?*

*I can take it all the way, the feelings
Break apart the pain and start the healing*

*I should've withstood, I shouldn't bow down
I couldn't get through, what could I do?*

*I can take it all the way, the feelings
Break apart the pain and start the healing*

*Do you really wanna throw with me?
This travesty that cuts sharp like a razor
Are you ready for your scars to bleed?
You will succeed at pulling out the invaders*

*But there's always something fighting its way
back in*

*But there's always something pushing me to give
in*

*Do you really wanna make-believe?
And try to achieve a little break from the anger?*

I should've been good, I should've been down
I couldn't let go, what could I do?
I can take it all the way, the feelings
Break apart the pain and start the healing

I should've withstood, I shouldn't bow down
I couldn't get through, what could I do?
I can take it all the way, the feelings
Break apart the pain and start the healing

Everything I'm feeling burst into flames (oh, oh)
Looking at a soul that's broken and strained (oh, oh)

Every night, the wish is always the same (oh, oh)
Keep on hoping that I don't go insane (oh, oh)

The more you fall for it
The more it starts to stick
The more you fall for it
The more it starts to stick
The more you fall for it
The more it starts to stick
The more you fall for it
The more it starts to stick
The more you fall for it
It's never gonna quit

I should've been good, I should've been down
I couldn't let go, what could I do?
I can take it all away, the feelings
Break apart the pain and start the healing

I should've withstood, I couldn't bow down
I couldn't get through, what could I do?
I can take it all the way, the feelings
Break apart the pain and start the healing
Break apart the pain and start the healing
Break apart the pain and start the healing
