

Idiosyncrazy

*And the dark seems to light my way
And the path is deceiving
And the end is so far away
It might just defeat me
But I gotta take my time
And I won't let it take me away
And it never got the best of me*

*Don't do it
Don't give in
Won't you ever get it?
Won't you ever get it?*

*You've chose to walk a thin line
Replaced the hurt without healing mine
You hold disgust in your heart, you just fucked with me*

*In my heart lies a blackened rage
Sometimes it overtakes me
Why the fuck did I run away?
My shadow is waiting
But I gotta face the facts
Of a twisted reality
And it never got a hold of me*

*Don't do it
Don't give in
Won't you ever get it?
Won't you ever get it?*

You chose to walk a thin line
Replaced the hurt without healing mine
You hold disgust in your heart, you just Fucked with me, idiosyncrasy
You chose to walk a thin line
Replaced the hurt without healing mine
You hold disgust in your heart
You just fucked with me, idiosyncrasy

Crawling down the path, I'm helpless, reaching for the light I see Every time I get too close, the light proceeds ahead of me
Digging deep, I take a step, standing up, I take a breath
Running towards the light, I feel the fingers wrapped around my neck

God is making fun of me
He's laughing up there, I can see
God is making fun of me
He's laughing up there, I can see

God is making fun of me
God is making fun of me
God is making fun of me
He's laughing up there, I can see

God is making fun of me
He's laughing up there, I can see
God is making fun of me
He's laughing up there, I can see

*You chose to walk a thin line
Replaced the hurt without healing mine
You hold disgust in your heart
You just fucked with me, idiosyncrasy*

*You chose to walk a thin line
Replaced the hurt without healing mine
You hold disgust in your heart
You just fucked with me, idiosyncrasy*
