

The Ringmaster

[Verse 1]

Hey, you

Yes, I'm talking to you

And what are you doing here?

And why you look so sad, man?

Brother, please come here

Let's talk and let it out

Dear, you have nothing to fear

Child, I'm the one that makes it, oh, so, so much better

[Chorus]

I feel your presence standing there up in my face

I feel the darkness haunting me with its embrace

I want to shed this, go to a place, a different time

The plot unfolds, this meaning here I'll never find

[Post-Chorus]

(Never, never find, never find, never find, never

Never find, never find, never find)

[Verse 2]

Hey, man

What do we have here?

You're looking so upset

You're making it quite clear

That you want nothing to change

'Cause you're so willing to hurt, and

Feel at home in the dark, boy

Everything you feel, child, won't make it better

[Chorus]

I feel your presence standing there up in my face
I feel the darkness haunting me with its embrace
I want to shed this, go to a place, a different time
The plot unfolds, this meaning here I'll never find

[Bridge]

You ever hear that voice in your motherfucking head?

Ooh, it goes

Looking at you, poking at you
Yelling at you, fucking with you (It goes)
Looking at you, poking at you
Yelling at you, fucking with you
Looking at you, poking at you
Yelling at you, fucking with you
Looking at you, poking at you
Yelling at you, fucking with you
It's fucking with you
It's fucking with you

[Chorus]

I feel your presence standing there up in my face
I feel the darkness haunting me with its embrace
I want to shed this, go to a place, a different time
The plot unfolds, this meaning here I'll never find

[Post-Chorus]

(Never, never find, never find, never find, never
Never find, never find, never find, never
Never find, never find, never find, never
Never find, never find, never find)
