

Never Never

I'll never love again
I would ever have to pretend
I would never love again, damn!

I don't even wanna have to try
Draw a line
Never flies
I don't even wanna have to die
But deep inside
The dead rehearse
And I never wanna clarify
And justify
So I run and hide
And I never wanna sleep my fights
So I crucified
All my hate inside

(No)
I'll never love again (no)
I will ever have to pretend (no)
I'll never gonna love again
Never gonna have to try to pretend
Never, never, never

I don't never wanna satisfy
'Cause it's inside
I'll do it fine
I don't never wanna multiply
'Cause deep inside
I'm not qualified

And I never wanna clarify
And justify
So I run and hide
And I never wanna sleep the fight
So I classify
All my hate inside

(No)
I'll never love again (no)
I will ever have to pretend (no)
I'll never gonna love again
Never gonna have to try to pretend
Never, never, never
I'll never love again
I will never gonna love again

Never, never

(No)
I'll never love again
I will ever have to pretend
I'll never gonna love again
Never gonna have to try to pretend
Never, never, never
(No) never, never, never
(No) never, never, never
(No) I'll never gonna love again
Never gonna have to try to pretend
Never, never, never
