

Calling me too soon

*Hear you calling hateful darling
You're so sweet but you can't stay
Won't be easy 'Cause you please me
Lifeless doll dressed up to play
Don't make something out of nothing
Feel your dreams just slip away
Careful with me doesn't fit me
Just pretend for one more day*

*All along I thought I was wrong
Also, it's screamed across the room
All along I feel it's strong
I feel it calling, calling me too soon*

*Awful timing hear him whining
Drive these ghosts away from me
Playful sinner wants me in her
Please just stay away from me
It's good headache little bone breaks
Like a matchstick, play for me
Hurt me tender one last bender
Going down so gracefully*

*All along I thought I was wrong
Also, it's screamed across the room
All along I feel it's strong
I feel it calling, calling me too soon*

*I don't need you
What the fuck you're here for?
Slam my fist against the door*

Oh no, don't go i'm gon' break it down
All of me is tied and torn i don't need, no
Is there right or wrong?

Curse the day when I was born
I don't need you what the fuck's it for?
Slam my face against the door

All along I thought I was wrong
Also, it's screamed across the room
All along I feel it's strong

I feel it calling me too soon

All along I thought I was wrong
Also, it's screamed across the room
All along I feel it's strong

Calling me too soon

I don't need you i don't need you
