

Everything Falls Apart

*Close your eyes, fall asleep!
Broken promises that you never keep!
Drift away tonight!
Just drift away tonight!
We used to dream, we used to laugh!
No one could tell us that this would never last!
This ain't a love song!
I would never give you one!*

*No more secrets, no more lies!
No more feelings or surprise!
No more whispered words or lullabies!
Go fuck your lies!*

*Everything, everything falls with us!
Everything, everything always does!
Everything, everything falls all apart!*

*I've given up, it's all I could take!
My hands are shaking, my body could break!
I will be lonely now!
Come on and take me out!
I used to care, I used to try!
But what's the use it always ends with goodbye!
This ain't a love song!
I'd never give you one!*

No more secrets, no more lies!
No more feelings or surprise!
No more whispered words or lullabies!
Go fuck your lies!

Everything, everything falls with us!
Everything, everything always does!
Everything, everything falls all apart!

There is nothing in my head!
(There is a voice in my head)...
There is nothing, there's nothing!
In my head!

Everything, everything falls with us!
Everything, everything always does!
Everything, everything falls all apart!

All apart!
All apart!
These are voices in my head!...
